Cedric Peerman

RB, Virginia

War Room analysis

Strengths: Is instinctive. Has the vision to find the hole. Can change directions fast. Keeps his legs churning and fights for every last yard. Keeps his feet against hard hits and runs through arm tackles to gain yards after contact. Can stand up pass rushers in their tracks and eliminate them from the play. Has good hands and is an elusive runner after the catch.

Weaknesses: Lacks the explosiveness and top-end speed to shoot through holes and take runs the distance. Struggles to get outside to the corner. Raises production and durability concerns. Does not block aggressively and uses poor technique.

Bottom line: Peerman did not have the dominant 2008 season many thought he would, which could be the result of an injury he suffered in 2007. While he had a strong Senior Bowl, the durability concerns could cause him to slide to Day 2.
